We can't know for sure why Jesus appeared first to the women and not the men, as the Scriptures do not say why. But we can infer a reason. First, note that all four Gospels affirm that women were the first to see the empty tomb and encounter an angel or angels (Matt 28:5-8 , Mark 16:1-8 , Luke 24:1-8 , John 20:1 ff).

The first high-heeled shoes appeared in ancient Persia: soldiers would wear them while riding horses so that their feet would stay in the stirrups. After that, these shoes spread throughout Europe, where aristocratic men would wear them to seem taller and more respectable. Under the influence of men's fashion, women also started choosing high-heeled shoes.

It seemed to me that men only wanted pretty, skinny girls or the super flirtatious type of woman. Neither of those describes me so I just assumed I would spend my life alone or settle for than less than I deserve. It felt like the kind of woman men ended up going out with were bubbly, outgoing, super thin and pretty.
