Enya’s “Only Time” is a smooth and soothing song. But if you’re above a specific age, it will probably bring back one very specific association: 9/11.So it seems like an odd tune for these brief Kraft Macaroni & Cheese spots, where parents struggle to get their kids to eat dinner before the kiddos blissfully devour some Blue Box.

+ Who can say where the road of life will go? + Where each and every day will flow? Why only time of course! It goes on to say about who can say where roads may meet later on and how love grows, you get the picture. This song is so meaningful, it has helped me to relax and GO WITH THE FLOW so much more. What an inspiring and beautiful song!
